RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR JUDGING
STANDARD HIBISCUS SHOWS

There should be an American Hibiscus Society General Judge Chairman and a Co-Chairman, selected by a majority vote of the American Hibiscus Society Board of Directors, to serve for a period of one year, subject to re-election. This team should supervise all judging in Chapter exhibition shows so that the judging of exhibition bloom shall be conducted uniformly and strictly according to the rules and regulations as adopted by said board. These elected judges of the American Hibiscus Society will cover each Chapter exhibition show; expense money will be used by these judges from a budget of $125.00 a year, set up by the American Hibiscus Society Board of Directors. would be a courtesy of the Host Chapters to arrange for overnight housing.

After all show dates have been agreed upon and published in the Spring issue of the Seed Pod, and within 30 days of each exhibition show, the Host Chapter Judge Chairman will invite by written invitation, enough accredited American Hibiscus Society Judges to do the job. All replies to these invitations should be kept on file by the Host Chapter Judge, together with a copy of the invitation. After all judging is completed this file should be turned over to the Executive Secretary of the American Hibiscus Society for future reference. A complete list of all American Hibiscus Society accredited judges that are in good standing will be sent to every chapter president before the beginning of the first exhibition show. The Host Chapter Judge Chairman should select their judges from this list.

All judges should expect to be met as they arrive by the Host Chapter Judge Chairman, or the Co-Chairman, and shown to a place where they will remain together to await judging instructions. As soon as they have all arrived, the Host Chapter Judge Chairman will group them into different teams, and designate a Captain for each team. Each team of judges will be assigned a ribbon clerk and a recording clerk, and be given their equipment as follows:

Captain of Team: One regular pencil and one cellophane pencil;
Ribbon Clerk: One box with award ribbons and Gold star awards, pencil, etc.
Recording Clerk: Recording pad and pencil.
Note: These clerks should be briefed by the Captain before they start.

All exhibition tables and card signs should have been set up previously. The card signs should be placed around exactly in accordance with the show
